

RHEUMATISM GOES

IF HOOD'S IS USED

The genuine old reliable Hood's Sarsaparilla corrects the acid condition of the blood and builds up the whole system. It drives out rheumatism because it cleanses the blood. It has been successfully used for forty years in many thousands of cases all over the world over.

There is no better remedy for skin and blood diseases, for loss of appetite, rheumatism, stomach and kidney troubles, general debility and all ailments arising from impure, impoverished, debilitated blood.

It is unnecessary to suffer. Start treatment at once. Get a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla from the nearest druggist. You will be pleased with the results.—(Adv.)

AUTOMOBILE TURNS OVER;
FOUR PERSONS INJURED

NASHVILLE, Ga., Nov. 19.—An automobile accident yesterday afternoon, seven miles this side of Ocala, came very near ending the lives of four people from Nashville. Manuel Stevens, driving a Ford car, undertook to take a sharp curve at too great a rate of speed, and the car turned to a complete somersault. Stevens received serious injuries, and may die. He was pinned under the car. Miss Irene Shedd was also pinned under the car, and had a leg broken. Mr. W. W. Hall and Miss Elizabeth Higgins were thrown out of the car. She was the least injured, and returned to the car and succeeded in pulling Miss Shedd from under the car, before help came.

JOHN D. MELL, OF ATHENS,
HEADS BAPTIST COLLEGE

Chosen by Carrollton Convention as President of Bessie Tift

BY ALLEN W. READER.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
CARROLLTON, Ga., Nov. 19.—The trustees of Bessie Tift college this morning unanimously elected Dr. John D. Mell, of Athens, as president to succeed Dr. C. H. S. Jackson. He has not agreed to accept the place but has taken it under consideration.

Dr. Mell is a son of Dr. P. H. Mell, for long years president of the Southern Baptist convention. He is president of the Georgia Baptist convention and has the confidence of the entire brotherhood. For a number of years Dr. Mell practiced law in Athens and then he entered the ministry. He has for years been pastor of several country churches and a lecturer on parliamentary practice in the law department of the University of Georgia. His election was looked upon as very wise in its nature and the entire convention hopes that he will accept.

The convention instructed the state mission board to select a secretary as soon as a suitable man can be found. The board of missions will meet in Atlanta at an early date. A number of men have been suggested as suitable to fill the office of secretary. The one who is most prominently mentioned is J. E. Sammons, pastor of the First Baptist church at Griffin. Other men suggested are Joe Gross and John Jester, former Georgians, now in Texas, and S. Y. Jameson, of Arkansas.

This morning Dr. W. L. Pickard, the new president of Mercer, made his first address as the convention. It was a great speech that moved the brethren mightily.

BESSIE TIFT-SHORTER.

The Georgia Baptist convention on Wednesday afternoon took up the Bessie Tift-Shorter matter and settled it in such a manner that the future of the college is a serious situation terminated in a love feast.

The request of Shorter college to withdraw from the convention was granted and while the members of the college are no longer under the control of the convention, Dr. A. W. Van Hoose, the president, addressed the convention. He had seen that there was friction between Shorter and Bessie Tift and he had written to a number of brethren asking their opinion as to the withdrawal. They all agreed that it would be wise. He said Shorter would have to leave the college and now she would enter upon a larger career of usefulness. He said the great task now was to lift the debt from Bessie Tift college. He pledged himself to the extent of his ability to help the college to do the great work that was before her.

Dr. L. E. Barton, of Atlanta, as chairman of the committee appointed to confer with the trustees of Bessie Tift college reported, recommending that the convention give the college the right of way for the next six months and that the pastors and churches and all other agencies of the body be directed to raise the necessary $30,000, and that the campaign be directed by a committee consisting of three members of the board of trustees, three members of the board of education and three members from the convention at large, all to be appointed by the next convention.

Dr. J. M. McFarland, of Romeville, explained how the debt on Bessie Tift was made. When the property was taken by the convention it was worth $30,000. Today it is worth $25,950. The debt had been increased for thirteen years and it was necessary to make the debt to make the college what it is today. If it was not for this debt hundreds of our girls would be groping in darkness instead of being women of usefulness in the state.

Dr. C. H. S. Jackson, the retiring president of Bessie Tift, made an impassioned speech in telling of the great burden that had rested upon him and of the struggles through which he had passed in keeping up the college. He rejoiced that he had set the pace to make a great Baptist college of the institution.

Dr. L. G. Hardman called forth applause by saying that he would be one of a hundred men to give $1,000 in cash for the relief of the college. An amendment offered by him was adopted in the future no debt or mortgage should be put upon the college property.

Dr. Pickard was applauded when he said that there was not a greater Baptist college man beneath the stars than C. H. S. Jackson. It was not his fault that this debt was on the college. The convention itself was guilty. When it began to be suggested four years ago that Bessie Tift was to be made a secondary college and Shorter the best of the two, the delegates began to send their daughters to Shorter. Then and there Bessie Tift began to decline. Shorter to go up. "You put Bessie Tift down and you are guilty. That is the truth and if I don't say it the stones would cry out against me."

It was finally decided to protect the campaign to raise $100,000 for Bessie Tift and to secure at least $25,000 of it within the next future.

The convention is a unit on lifting the debt from the college and thus keeping her out of the courts.

BANK BOOKKEEPER WILL ENTER A PLEA OF GUILTY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 19.—M. E. Campbell, former head bookkeeper of the First National bank, will plead guilty to making a false entry in the bank's books with intent to defraud or to deceive officials of the bank. This plea has already been entered before John A. Elmore, United States commissioner, and will be referred to the federal grand jury when it is empaneled December 1. A state charge of embezzling more than $18,000 of bank funds may be placed against Campbell, but it is probable the federal charge will first be disposed of as he is held on federal warrants now.

A Nervous Wreck

Had No Desire To Live—Peruna Is A Tonic and Strength Builder So Says

Mrs. Frank Stroeb, R. F. D. 1, Appleton, Wis., her letter reads: "I began using Peruna a few months ago when my health and strength were all gone, and I was nothing but a nervous wreck. Could not sleep, eat or rest properly, and felt in desire to live."

"Three bottles of Peruna made me look at life in a different light, as I began to regain my lost strength. While my recovery took nearly four months, at the end of that time I was better than I ever had been before. I had a splendid color and never weighed more in my life."

"I certainly think Peruna is without a rival as a tonic and strength builder, and it has my endorsement."

Mr. Charles Brown, R. R. 4, Box 79, Honesville, Penn., writes: "I have tried many different remedies, but have found that Peruna is the greatest tonic on earth, and a perfect system builder."

Campbell has not made a $10,000 bond and is held in the county jail as a government prisoner. He has refused to see newspaper representatives and has announced that no further statement will be made. A. M. Baldwin, president of the bank, will say nothing else about the defalcation, claiming his first statement covered the case.

Speaking of the Farmer—
How About the Skilled Mechanic and Laborer?

The low price of cotton has affected the farmers, and this year they will lose some money; we all do, sometimes. But why all this cry, "Save the farmer," when we know the crying need today (locally) is save the common laborer and skilled mechanic?

They are not crying charity.
They are not asking special meetings of legislature.
They are not asking congress to advance millions.
They are simply asking for work at a living wage.

The farmer may own his own farm; have milk, butter, potatoes, peas and meat in the barn. If he rents, he has paid his rent to January 1 in 10-cent cotton. No danger of him being put out of house and home.

It is different with the laborer and mechanic. The most of them live by the week. They are out of work or possibly working half time; rents are due; grocery bills due; coal to buy (no wood like the farmer).

The question is, how can we best help them and help ourselves at the same time? Listen! The building business is paralyzed and almost shut down on account of low-price cotton and stagnant money. ("Banks ain't doing right, either.")

Probably you have some improved property that is vacant, or at least paying less on the investment than it should. Now is the time to improve it. Brush it up; paint it; remodel it if necessary. MAKE IT PAY.

Very few people are building homes now, but if YOU are thinking of it, now is the time. Prices are right. You will get the benefit later.

We are now remodeling the four-story building for the owners, corner Decatur and Pryor streets. By doing so, we are doubling the rent and giving employment to fifty men; we are also remodeling the old City Hall building for Messrs. Arnold and Hill, employing twenty-five men. It is paying them to do this remodeling, as well as helping the working man. All this helps.

This is an ad, but think it over. Maybe you have a building that needs the same attention. If so, call

DEMURRER TO BURNS MEN INDICTMENT OVERRULED

Attorneys for Defendants Agree to Go to Trial Early in December

Judge Ben H. Hill, of Fulton superior court, Thursday morning overruled the demurrer to the indictment of Ian S. Lehon, C. C. Tedder and Arthur Thurman, on the charge of subornation of perjury in connection with the Frank case.

Lehon is the Burns lieutenant who worked with Burns in the Frank case. Tedder is the former bailiff of Attorney William M. Smith, and worked with the Burns agents. Thurman is an Atlanta attorney. They were indicted several months ago and the demurrer by their attorneys was argued before Judge Hill Wednesday.

After Judge Hill rendered his decision the attorneys for the defendants agreed with Solicitor General to go to trial early in December, the defendants reserving the right, in the event of a conviction, to appeal both the conviction and Judge Hill's decision on the demurrer to the supreme court at the same time, thereby saving several months which would be consumed in a separate appeal.

The defendants are represented by Judge Arthur G. Powell, of Atlanta, and St. Clair Adams, of New Orleans, the latter being the former district attorney in that city.

The principal ground set up in the demurrer was that a murder charge cannot be defended with the demurrer by a person other than the defendant that committed the murder. Therefore, that the affidavit of Rev. C. B. Ingham, in which he alleged he overheard Jim Conley confess to the murder of Mary Phagan, was totally foreign to the Frank case and not admissible as evidence, so that Keadale could not have perjured himself nor could the defendants have suborned his perjury.

The attorneys for the defendants in setting up this ground of demurrer took advantage of the wording of the indictments as drawn by Solicitor Dorey, wherein the indictments charged them with "subornation of perjury in connection with the Frank case."

OLD FLIM-FLAM GAME IS WORKED ON GROCERS

An unidentified white man, with a horse and buggy, worked a time-worn, but nearly always effective, flim-flam game Wednesday afternoon on Ware & Rogers, grocers, 1008 DeKalb avenue.

This man telephoned the grocers an order for ten dollars worth of foodstuffs and requested that they send them with $10 in change to 38 Josephine street. He said he had a $20 bill and requested the change to be able to pay for the groceries.

As the delivery boy came up Josephine street with the groceries, he stopped his buggy, asked him if he had the order and the $10 in change for 38 Josephine street, and receiving an affirmative reply directed the boy to give him the $10 and to deliver the groceries at 38. His wife, he said, would hand him $20 bill.

When the boy brought the groceries to 38 in no time there knew anything about the playing of the order. He found it was the residence of G. P. Bedfordfield, an employee of The Atlanta Journal, that Mr. Bedfordfield was absent and that Mrs. Bedfordfield not only had not placed the order but knew nothing whatever about it.

Prisoner Curses Court For 20 Minutes and Escapes Without Fine

A prisoner in Judge James B. Ridley's division of the municipal court for more than twenty minutes Wednesday flouted the judge, the bailiffs and the spectators, yet escaped without a fine for contempt of court.

The prisoner had been brought to the court on a possessory warrant, and evidently he didn't like the surroundings in this court room, declined to curse and abuse everybody in sight.

The judge at first didn't understand the chatter for it was in Spanish, but finally he turned to a reporter, who had a smattering of the language of the dons and said: "What is that bird saying?"

The reporter told him.

"We can't have any conversation like that in this court room," declared Judge Ridley, as he instructed Deputy E. V. Laster to remove the prisoner to an ante-room.

The prisoner is officially described in the warrant as "one yellow headed Central American parrot named Leda."

The warrant was sworn out by O. A. Hatter, an employee at the Terminal station, and was directed against S. L. Fontaine, of 115 Cooper street. A deputy arrested the parrot and brought it to court.

Fontaine according to the plaintiff, purchased the parrot from a negro who stole it from Mrs. Barker's residence, and then refused to give it up without the purchase price.

After the parrot had shocked the court with its fluent and profane Spanish, Hatter and the parrot reached an agreement, and had the case dismissed. The court brooded a slight of relief, as the bird and its conversation left the building in the custody of the original owner.

SOCIETY NIGHT WILL BE HELD AT THE ART SALON

The art salon in the Ponce de Leon apartments will be open Thursday evening, the occasion to be known as "society night," and the following prominent people will complete the reception committee:

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bidwell, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cosgrove, Mrs. R. W. Joinstone, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Van Hargen, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Blosser, Miss Emily Jekyll, Mr. and Mrs. Sam N. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wynn, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Meekel, Miss Anne Hunt, Mr. L. L. and Mrs. W. L. Peel, Mrs. Isaac Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Linton Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Howell, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. McBurney, Governor and Mrs. John M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Moll R. Wilkinson, Mrs. Clarence Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Haden.

An exquisite pastel landscape painted by C. R. Hardy, who is exhibiting at the salon, has been presented by Mr. Hardy to the Atlanta Art association. His pictures have attracted much attention and he, in common with a number of other artists, have made sales directly as the result of the salon.

In every way the salon has been a success and the art association plans to make it an annual event. It will close at the end of this week.

MOVEMENT IS ON FOOT TO OUST DAN CAREY

Park Board Members Unfriendly to Him Chose J. O. Cochran as Candidate

Members of the city park board unfriendly to Park Manager Dan Carey have started a movement to defeat him for re-election in January, when his two-year term expires.

The candidate they have chosen for their purpose is J. O. Cochran, former president of the park board and now an investigator in the law department of the city.

Mr. Cochran while a member of the park board was not the enemy of Manager Carey, but on the contrary was one of Manager Carey's strongest supporters when a fight was made to defeat him two years ago.

Mr. Cochran claims he did not authorize the use of his name by the members of the board who are now planning to oust the general manager.

The movement started without his knowledge, and he has discouraged the use of his name to every member of the board who has been the subject to me," he said Wednesday.

But the anti-Carey board members say they are determined to beat him, and are going to elect Mr. Cochran if they can, whether he is a candidate for the place or not.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB WILL HOLD MEETING

Another meeting of the Fifth Ward Improvement club will be held at the English avenue school house at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening.

A special invitation has been extended by the club to Dr. J. M. Pierce, member of the board of education from the fifth, to be present, and he will be asked to explain the cause of complaints against the board, which the club has made.

Mays Badgett Entertains

Mays Badgett, the violin-maker, entertained several hundred of his friends Wednesday evening at a bear meat dinner in the Central Dancing academy on Alabama street.

This was the fourth annual banquet given by Mr. Badgett to his friends, and it was the nature of a compliment to the Atlanta Federation of Musicians. The musicians were there in large numbers with their wives and sweethearts.

Bill, the Bar Beast, On Way to Florida, Called on Leavers

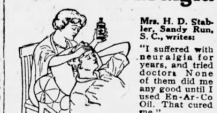

Borne on the back of the cold wave that whistled through Atlanta Monday was the ragged vaudeville of the great army of the restless who from now on will march their cohorts through Georgia to warmer winds and the land of sunshine.

The open season for tramps has started. The police station had an inkling of it Monday night when twelve shivering white men registered on the sleepers' docket, and the hint became a certainty Tuesday night when no less than twenty-five sought shelter, a record for the Atlanta sleepers' docket.

Hill, the Bar Beast, late of Halstead street, Chicago, explained, "I've been hanging around Florida. See? I shook Chi three weeks ago, and been hanging' the rods ever since. Last night it was too lame cold for a polar bear down in the yards, so I call on me old pal, Chief Beavers. Get me?"

Each one of the twenty-five beat it from the station house Wednesday morning, and now are doubtless somewhere between here and Macon. They left a myriad of names scribbled on the walls of their cell; among them, Penelope Price, Tacoma, Wash.; Dixie Kid, Redfield, Mont.; Just Joe, Three Stars, Twenty-two Thompson; After All, and Mitch.

LITTLE GIRL FROM POLAND "SEEKS ZE EDUCATION"

"I look for ze education," said nine-year-old Rosina Vadickas, late of Poland, Russia, now living at 132 Decatur street, when she approached a man in front of the Boys' High school at dusk Wednesday. "Can I get him here?" The man directed her across the Washington street viaduct to the Girls' High school. There she was taken in charge by a kind policeman and brought home. She told the officer her mother was too poor to buy her books and couldn't send her to day school, but she was determined to get an education at night school.

NEW RECORDER CLEARS ROSTRUM OF LOAFERS

One of the first official acts of George E. Johnson, newly elected recorder, was the issuance of an order to Court Bailiff George Corbett to keep the platform or judge's rostrum clear of all persons except newspaper men and invited guests of the recorder.

By an order, all persons within the courtroom will be required to get seats unless they are on the witness stand. Also orders were issued to the bailiff to maintain order in the courtroom. This has heretofore been the duty of the clerk of the court.

GOVERNOR DESIGNATES NOV. 29 TUBERCULOSIS DAY

Day Will Be Observed All Over United States in War on White Plague

The following proclamation by Governor Stanton officially designating Sunday, November 29, as Tuberculosis Day was issued from the executive office Thursday:

"Whereas, The greatest plague with which the human race is afflicted, is the disease known as tuberculosis, and whereas, A large percentage of the deaths in Georgia last year (5,310 according to reliable figures) were caused by this disease, the control and eradication of which can be accomplished only by the united efforts of all the people of the commonwealth in the spreading of information regarding its control and Therefore, I, John M. Stanton, governor of Georgia, do issue this, my proclamation, fixing Sunday, November 29, as Tuberculosis Day in Georgia for this year, and I call on all the people of this state to observe it in such manner as in their judgment will further and advance the world-wide movement against the spread and looking to the final extermination of this disease and thereby reduced to the highest good of humanity.

RAILROADS GIVE LOW RATES FOR CARNIVAL

Reduced Fare Will Increase Attendance at Hog and Hominy Festival

Announcement by the railroads that they will make effective special low rates for out-of-town visitors to the hog and hominy carnival, December 3, will attract to Atlanta one of the largest visiting delegations ever entertained here.

Interest in the carnival centers in the selection of a queen to preside at the carnival ball in the evening, and in the big parade which will be the afternoon feature. City authorities will be asked to declare a half-holiday.

Twelve of Atlanta's prettiest girls have already entered the race for queen honors. The girl getting the highest number will be crowned queen and will have the privilege of selecting, one each, another maid of honor. Altogether, the royal court will represent a gathering of the most popular young women in Atlanta.

GEORGIA PRODUCTS DAY SUCCESS IN DEKALB CO.

DeKalb county celebrated Georgia Products day with a dinner at the court house in Decatur Wednesday night, given under the auspices of the Decatur board of trade and attended by over 200 residents of the community.

An elaborate menu of home-grown foodstuffs had been prepared by the committee on arrangements, Scott Chandler, chairman, assisted by President Dabney and Secretary Ramagock, of the board of trade; Mrs. P. F. Callahan, president of the Decatur Women's club, and a committee of representative Decatur ladies.

Among the speeches which followed were the most interesting that of J. J. Holliman, president of the Southern Mortgage company, of Atlanta, who declared with telling emphasis that the "one-way" system, was all that was keeping the south from unparallel prosperity. He urged that the papers of the state impress on the farmers the evil of the cotton oligarchy, which he declared had been a drag on the progress of Dixie for the last three decades.

Other speeches were made by Judge C. S. Reid, of the Stone Mountain superior court, on "Improved Conditions in Georgia"; Mrs. P. F. Callahan, on "Girls' Canning Clubs"; Fred Houser, secretary of the Atlanta convention, on "Stone Mountain as a Convention Attraction"; W. Bayne Gibson, director of the Decatur board of trade, on "Hog and Hominy"; and Congressman William Schley Howard, on "Boys' Corn Clubs."

Kidneys Should Not Be Neglected

The most important organs of elimination are the kidneys and they must be kept clean and active so they may remove the poisonous waste matter which otherwise returns to the circulation and finds its way to all parts of the body. If you're nervous, lack ambition and have backache and indigestion, it's almost certain that the functions of the kidneys to remove impurities is impaired and should be remedied immediately. With its ability to keep the kidneys acting freely and in a healthy state, Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy, if reinforced, would make life miserable, untiring great discomfort and suffering. It acts specifically upon the kidneys and liver in such a manner that it establishes a healthy condition and tones up the entire system. For over 37 years Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy has been the standard for kidney and liver diseases. Get it at your druggist's in 50c and $1.00 sizes. The most important organs of elimination are the kidneys and they must be kept clean and active so they may remove the poisonous waste matter which otherwise returns to the circulation and finds its way to all parts of the body. If you're nervous, lack ambition and have backache and indigestion, it's almost certain that the functions of the kidneys to remove impurities is impaired and should be remedied immediately. ATLANTA BIDS FAREWELL TO TEMPERANCE WORKERS

Meeting Wednesday Night
Brings Annual W. C. T. U.
Convention to Close

Atlanta bids farewell Thursday morning to more than 1,200 visitors to the first-annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which ended Wednesday night at the Baptist Tabernacle after daily sessions which began a week ago.

The last business of the executive committee was the selection of a city for the 1915 convention. Seattle, Wash., was chosen Thursday.

The convention held three sessions on its last day. At the afternoon session the toast, "Atlanta, the country's greatest convention city," was drunk in clear, cold water. Mrs. T. F. Patterson, president of the Georgia union, was given official recognition for the services she has rendered in organizing the delegation, and Atlanta women who assisted her were introduced before the convention and cheered to the echo.

Three hundred dollars was raised for the Lillian M. Nye memorial fund and the union was presented with a 15-amp strip of film woven from cotton before the civil war. This was the gift of Mrs. Henry Huber. The cloth was cut into little pieces and sold to the delegates for the benefit of the Stevens fund.

At "recognition night" Wednesday, forty-six states celebrated gains in membership. The president of the state invited women suffrage except Virginia's president, who declared Virginia men would vote the way the women wanted them to.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody will Know

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Darken the hair. Sage Tea, turns gray hair and looks dry, wispy and scraggly just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of false recommendations of ready-to-use preparations, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair, besides, no one can possibly tell as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, twine it through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, the natural color is restored and it becomes thick, soft and lustrous and you appear years younger.—(ADV.)

WHAT $1000 FOR THIS WOMAN

The Price She Paid for Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
Which Brought Good Health.

Danville, Va.—"I have only spent ten dollars on your medicine and feel so much better than I did when the doctor was treating me. I don't suffer any bearing down pains at all now and I sleep well. I cannot say enough for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills as they have done so much for me. I am enjoying good health now and owe it all to your remedies. I take pleasure in telling my friends and neighbors about them."—Mrs. MATTIE HALEY, 601 Colquhoun Street, Danville, Va.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

CLOTHES OF ATLANTIAN SHIPPED TO WAR ZONE

Old Garments Will Be Sent Into Bandages for the Wounded

Atlanta's old sheets, pillowcases, mosquito netting, napkins, petticoats and other wearing apparel are being sent to bandage Europe's wounded.

Through the local branch of the Salvation Army, one shipment already has been made, and another will follow shortly. Mrs. A. W. Crawford, wife of Brigadier Crawford, was busy at work Thursday morning in the army headquarters in the Peck building, sorting bundles of old linen and cotton cloth which generous Atlantians had sent in. With each piece, it is necessary to rip out the hem and the seams so that an unbroken sheet of cloth may be rolled up. This is then sent to the Army factories in New York, where it is sterilized and converted into band and bandages that are then shipped across the seas.

Mrs. Crawford said that army surgeons call at the home of anyone who wishes to give away old linen and cotton. A telephone message is all that is necessary. Almost any sort of old clothing can be used.

CHAMP CLARK DINES ON GEORGIA 'POSSUM

"That's the Best I've Eaten in Ten Years," Speaker Tells Hosts in Macon

(By Associated Press.)
MACON, Ga., Nov. 19.—"I've eaten the best 'possum I've had in ten years," said Champ Clark last night as he was being entertained by a Macon club at a Georgia Products dinner.

Members of the club told humorous stories and the speaker laughed uproariously.

He remarked that he had had several good laughs in Georgia, the first he had had in five months.

"It has been no laughing matter up there in Washington," said the speaker. "Things have been too serious to laugh."

Newspaper men. He and Mrs. Joyce are both delighted with Atlanta and expect to make the south their permanent home.

Baltimore Debutantes Will Cut Expenses to Aid Victims of War

(By Associated Press.)
BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 19.—Thirty-four debutantes who will make their bows to Baltimore society within the next few weeks have signed an agreement which insures an absence of rivalry in elegance in their respective social functions and pledges the signers and their families to refrain from extravagance in entertainments.

Announcement was made today "in view of the widespread misery caused by the war, it is debatable has" agreed that the entertainments will be from simple and unextravagant, that larger contributions may be made for the relief of suffering both at home and abroad.

The hope is expressed that these entertaining the debutantes will "co-operate in this effort toward simplicity."

DEPUTY SHERIFF AND WIFE HAVE CLOSE CALL IN FIRE

Deputy Sheriff Robert B. Deavors and Mrs. Deavors narrowly escaped injury about 3 o'clock Thursday morning, when fire gutted their residence at 444 South Pryor street.

A defective fuse in given as the cause of the blaze, which started in a closet in the room occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Deavors. The fire had eaten its way through the floor of the closet, where the cracking of the flames around Mr. Deavors. He rushed to a telephone, to find that it had been burned out, and then he and Mrs. Deavors ran to the street and shouted to neighbors to call the fire department.

Call Officers Long and Austin, who arrived at the same time with the fire engine, moved some of the furniture from the residence, but the flames were checked before they spread away from the one room. The loss is estimated at about $50, and it includes practically the entire wardrobe of both the deputy sheriff and his wife.

USE-COTTON-GOODS MOVEMENT BOOSTED ON HIKING JOURNEY

Alabama Man Will Walk From Atlanta to Washington Selling
Souvenir Cotton Bales

Ezra S. Pike, the son of ex-Sheriff B. M. Pike, of Gadsden, Ala., left Atlanta Wednesday afternoon on a walking trip to Washington, D. C., to advertise the use of cotton goods.

"They shot at each other three or four times," said Van Sloot, "but they didn't hit. Neither man could aim his rifle on the other's head without wounding him. The Frenchman was a better target than he got."

"First moment that I saw a dead man," said the German, "I was so glad to see him die. The Frenchman was using over him. The Frenchman was so sure he saw the dead man move. If a strong effort he averted his eyes. But when he looked back again he was certain the dead man had lifted his position. The Frenchman elevated his rifle, but they began to talk of separating."

"You must be my prisoner," said the German. "You asked for peace."

The Frenchman was frankly bored by the prospect. He proposed a sporting alternative. "Why not go together?" he asked. "We have no quarrel. Let us talk it over."

They shook hands and went to the end of the road and shared the Frenchman's bread and the German's sausage. They told each other of the war before. In their earlier incidents of the past miserable week became funny. They laughed together. The Frenchman was a stamp collector. The German owned a passion for butterflies. They bored each other with their tales. Each courteously suppressed his own, certain that the other would do the same when it was his time to listen. He and by they began to talk of separating.

"You must be my prisoner," said the German. "You asked for peace."

The Frenchman pointed out that he had only asked for a truce. Upon consideration the German admitted this was the fact.

"Then we must return," said the German. "You to your shell hole and me to my stump. We become enemies again."

The Frenchman was frankly bored by the prospect. He proposed a sporting alternative. "Why not go together?" he asked. "We have no quarrel. Let us talk it over."

TEDDER HAS BONDSMAN READY FOR INDICTMENT Gets False Tip Grand Jury Is In Session and Gets Busy

Carlton C. Tedder, one time Burns' agent, and "evidence man" for attorneys made a futile trip to the sheriff's office Thursday for the grand jury was not in session.

Shortly after 10 o'clock Tedder accompanied by a bondsman walked into the office and took a seat.

"Hello Tedder," said Deputy John Owen, "what brings you here this morning?"

"Why I heard that the grand jury was in session, so I just got my bondsman and came down to be ready for any little indictments they may return."

"Come back tomorrow," said Deputy Owen, "the grand jury doesn't meet today."

"Alright, I will drop in during the morning Friday," Tedder answered as he left the room.

At three consecutive sessions of the grand jury indictments have been returned against Tedder in connection with the probe of the alleged fake bond scandal.

EXAMINATIONS ARE HELD FOR PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

More than a dozen applicants presented themselves Wednesday to take the examinations necessary to obtain a state license for certified public accountant. These examinations began in the parlors of the Hotel Anley Wednesday and continued through Thursday, and are given under the direction of the state board of accountant examiners.

Mr. Pike will make speeches in support of the use-cotton-goods movement. Several chambers of commerce will endorse him and he will be the feature of a number of cotton bales along the route.

He expects to cover the 545 miles from Atlanta to Washington by Christmas, making about twenty miles a day. On arrival in Washington he will find a cash bonus awaiting him from Editor Chandler.

METHODIST CONFERENCE ADMITS A LARGE CLASS

Bishop Candler Addresses Conference on Connectional Church at Washington

By REV. L. F. WINTER.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

MARTIN, Ga., Nov. 15.—Attended by Bishops Warren A. Candler and A. W. Wilson, the latter the senior bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, the annual conference of this morning admitted a large class on trial, following which Bishop Candler addressed the conference on the connectional church at Washington, D. C.

The connectional church has been erected at a cost approximating $300,000, and the conference heard Bishop Candler's discussion of this church with deep interest.

During the morning Bishop Wilson was introduced to the conference, and the conference heard with pleasure by the ministerial committee.

The conference heard an address by Mrs. J. D. Hammond, wife of Prof. Hammond, of Augusta, in which she related in interesting detail the good work that is being accomplished by this school for colored people.

When the conference recessed for lunch it was announced that this afternoon memorial service would be held for Dr. Lovejoy, whose death yesterday occasioned profound sorrow among the ministers attending the conference.

The class admitted to trial this morning followed: Walter E. Brown, E. H. Bailey, R. S. David, S. D. Berry, E. S. Fleming, G. E. Sumner, H. S. Coffey, W. W. Barrett, G. E. Sumner, R. E. Rutland, H. H. Jones, W. B. Feltz, W. M. Jones, R. S. Walker, R. H. Huff, A. Warwick, W. M. Twigg, W. B. Mills, R. P. Harmon, W. H. Spence, B. S. Branham, B. L. Betts, J. S. Hill, A. W. Quillian, Jr., M. T. Watkins.

THE AD ASSOCIATION The Widows and Orphans' Aid association of the conference met on Tuesday night. This is a mutual insurance association among the preachers of the conference. Each clerical member pays a monthly fee of two dollars and the beneficiaries receive between four and five hundred dollars. It is an old brotherhood, having been in existence for many years and having dispensed many thousands of dollars in the course of its history. Laymen are non-participating members upon the payment of $1 when a member dies. The association has an investment fund, the largest left by Judge J. L. G. Harris, deceased Atlanta. The interest on this fund goes to the beneficiaries.

The address Tuesday night was made by Dr. C. C. Patton, stationed this year at West Point. He spoke with eloquent and convincing words of the value and her important place in the work of the pastor.

A LARGE CLASS The class before the committee on applicants for admission on trial, whose duty it is to examine those who wish to enter the conference, on a prescribed

AD MEN TO ENTERTAIN FRIENDS WITH MOVIE

Under the auspices of the Atlanta Ad Men's club a moving picture entertainment will be given at the Atlanta Hotel on Friday evening. Films will be exhibited which will show true to life scenes at the San Francisco exposition and in several of the most picturesque western states.

H. A. Lane, of the San Francisco exposition, will accompany the pictures with an explanatory lecture. Tickets may be secured from any member of the Atlanta Ad Men's club or from St. Elmo Massengale, president, in the Candler building. The entertainment is free and given as a compliment to the friends of the Ad Men.

course of study, was called upon Tuesday to examine the largest number of applicants that have passed before the committee in many years.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always bears The Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

When your baby is colicky, or has a fever, or is teething, or has a cold, or is suffering from any of the ailments of infancy, Castoria is the only remedy that will cure them. It is a gentle laxative, and it is the only one that will not hurt the baby's stomach. It is the only one that will not make the baby sick. It is the only one that will not make the baby cry. It is the only one that will not make the baby refuse to eat. It is the only one that will not make the baby refuse to sleep. It is the only one that will not make the baby refuse to play. It is the only one that will not make the baby refuse to be happy. It is the only one that will not make the baby refuse to be healthy. It is the only one that will not make the baby refuse to be a good child. It is the only one that will not make the baby refuse to be a good citizen. It is the only one that will not make the baby refuse to be a good man. It is the only one that will not make the baby refuse to be a good woman. It is the only one that will not make the baby refuse to be a good father. It is the only one that will not make the baby refuse to be a good mother. DR. W. P. LOVEJOY DIES AT MARETTA CONFERENCE

Presiding Elder of Atlanta
District Victim of Phtomaine
Poisoning

Dr. W. P. Lovejoy, presiding elder of the Atlanta district and one of the most prominent members of the North Georgia Methodist conference, died at Marietta, where the conference is now in annual session, at 7 o'clock Wednesday night.

Dr. Lovejoy went to Marietta from Atlanta Tuesday morning. Shortly after his arrival he became ill with ptomaine poisoning, caused by eating salmon and milk just before leaving Atlanta. His condition grew serious very rapidly and he was taken to a sanitarium in Marietta. An operation was not undertaken on account of his advanced years.

The death of Dr. Lovejoy is the second to occur during a session of the conference within two years. At the 1913 session of the conference, held at Marietta, J. J. J. Robbins, pastor of Trinity church, in Atlanta, was taken while preaching, and died in a few days.

The conference will hold a memorial service to Dr. Lovejoy at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Bishop Collins says will preside and will be assisted by Bishop Warren Chandler. If the latter can reach Marietta in time. At this service the presiding elders of the conference will act as pallbearers. The body will be taken to Cartersville Thursday night, accompanied by an escort from the conference. The funeral will be held at the First Methodist church in Cartersville Friday morning. Rev. A. W. Quillian, a member of the conference and a friend of Dr. Lovejoy, will conduct the funeral at Dr. Lovejoy's request. Interment will be in the Cartersville cemetery, near the grave of Dr. Lovejoy's wife, who died four years ago.

BORN IN GREENVILLE.
Dr. Lovejoy is survived by two sons and two daughters, as follows: Hutton Lovejoy, a lawyer of LaGrange; Paul Lovejoy, who is with the Georgia Railway and Power company of Atlanta; Mrs. Frank Harwell, wife of Judge Frank Harwell, of the city court, of LaGrange; and Mrs. Paul P. Akin, of Cartersville.

Dr. Lovejoy was born at Greenville, Ga., in 1845. He was a member of the Georgia Methodist conference during the last two years of the Civil war and immediately after the war entered Emory college at Oxford, Ga., from which he graduated in the class of 1869.

Joining the North Georgia conference in 1871, his first appointment was to the Oconee circuit in Gordon county. His rise in the conference was rapid. After serving as pastor of increasingly important churches he was appointed presiding elder. In this capacity he was especially strong, and out of his forty-two years in the conference, twenty-eight were spent as presiding elder. He was presiding elder of nearly every district in the conference. He came to the Atlanta district in 1912 and had finished three years of service in this appointment when the present conference met. This district is probably the most important in the whole southern Methodist church. Formerly Dr. Lovejoy served as presiding elder of the South Atlanta district, before the North and South Atlanta districts were consolidated.

Dr. Lovejoy was president of the legal conference of the North Georgia conference at the time of his death. He was a delegate to the last five sessions of the General conference, which meets every four years, and in the supreme body of the southern Methodist church he was a trustee of Emory college at Oxford, of Wesleyan Female college at Macon, and of LaGrange Female college at LaGrange. He wrote a number of doctrinal pamphlets and one book which attracted wide attention, entitled "The Mission of the Church." He was a frequent contributor to the various Methodist publications.

He was a thirty-second degree Mason and was a charter member of the Chi Phi fraternity at Emory college. His wife was Anna Lowe, of Ashland City, Tenn., near Nashville. They were married in 1871. There were originally five children. The oldest died in infancy.

Dr. Lovejoy was a preacher of deep spiritual conviction and in the pulpit was characterized by a strong and quiet power. He was endowed with an executive ability which made him a fine presiding elder. He was a man among men, and upon his countenance he bore the "mark of his high calling which was in Christ Jesus." Thousands knew him, loved him, and were strengthened by his splendid character. To them his death is a personal bereavement, and to the church it is a heavy loss.

CANDIDATES FOR QUEEN OF CARNIVAL ENTRUSED

Society Girls Work Hard to Make Hog and Hominy
Festival Success

There was an enthusiastic meeting in the ladies' parlor at the auditorium at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning of the twelve young ladies who are candidates for queen of the hog and hominy carnival December 2. Every one of them entered enthusiastically into the spirit of the occasion and will do all they can to add to its splendid success.

These young ladies are among the best known and most popular of Atlanta's society debutantes, and include Misses Aletha Fielder, Adrienne Batten, Mary Rice, Lawson Hines, Louise Parker, Mary King, Hattie Broyles, Anne Patterson, Mamie Kirkpatrick, May Horne, Mary Murphy and Wyckoff.

With them met Mrs. W. L. Peel who at the instant request of the Atlanta Ad Man has consented to act as emcee for the queen and maids of honor in connection with the carnival. The committee of the Ad Man club waited on Mrs. Peel and placed the matter before her showing its importance to Georgia and the south, and although reluctant to do so, she finally consented to act.

The retail merchants of Atlanta have taken a deep and active interest in the hog and hominy carnival and many of them have already announced their purpose to have floats in the parade.

MRS. HUBBARD APPEALS CASE TO HIGHER COURT

Case Involving Property Valued at $100,000 Goes to Superior Court

An appeal from the judgment of the ordinary's court was filed in the superior court Wednesday by Mrs. Sylvia Thomsen Hubbard, who is seeking to recover $100,000 of property in the vicinity of Buckhead on the ground that she has been insane from her infancy and had no legal right to dispose of the property, which was left her by her father, the late Captain George Thomsen.

The appeal is on the decision of the ordinary, when he recently refused to appoint an administrator for the estate of the late Captain Thomsen.

The defendants in the case are H. R. Anderson, Martha A. Bailey, G. W. Harlan, W. S. Pharr, Henry Sampe, Mrs. Ida Williams, David Williams, Dr. H. P. Scott, H. R. Arnold, W. T. Healey, Thomsen Company, and associates. Louis P. Scott, all of whom hold parts of the property Mrs. Hubbard claims.

Scots Hold Social Session
A unique program has been arranged for the "social session" of the Burns club at the city auditorium Friday night.

Invitations to the meeting have been sent out by A. Cruikshank, chief of the Atlanta Scottish society, and all the Scots in the city are urged to be present at the social session.

THEATERS

"The Winning of Barbara Worth," the thrilling novel by Harold Bell Wright, has been given a big scenic production by Kluge and Erlanger, the transposing of the desert, with its rocky and wintry landscape, the true tints of harmonies of landscape, is an artistic triumph, while the visualization of the western characters with the pioneer will and the pioneer spirit, in vivid, dramatic, and convincing, consists of a prologue and three acts by Mr. Mark H. Swan. It will be presented at the Atlanta, Saturday matinee and night.

It is a story of unusual power that Jules Robert Goodman is said to have told in his new play, "The Silent Voice," that Otis Skinner is presenting this season with so much success. He comes to the Atlanta theater, next Monday and Tuesday evenings. A special matinee will be given on Tuesday. Seats are now on sale.

Extraordinary interest has developed in the attractions this week at the popular Forsyth. The bill is more than usual quality; there is more comedy and singing and dancing than has been on any bill this entire season. It is a show full of merit and goes from start until the close.

BREWERS KICK ABOUT HIGH TAX ON BEER

Declare Government Gets More Revenue Now Than They Do

(By Associated Press.)
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 18.—What the speakers termed the injustice of the recently imposed war tax on beer and a general discussion of the prohibition movement featured sessions of the United States Brewers' association convention here. The board of trustees in their annual report made the statement that the government, by grace of the new tax, not only getting three times the revenue from beer that the brewers themselves get.

The trustees also pointed out that during the last half of 1913 beer sales decreased 1-2 per cent, due to the disturbed business conditions. During July, August and September of this year the business decreased 10 per cent when compared with the same period last year.

The trustees reported a careful investigation of the industry as a whole in this country is being made and information so obtained is to be used to combat arguments in favor of national prohibition.

NEW WIRELESS STATION IN FLORIDA EXPLAINED

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 18.—Rumors that representatives of one of the great nations at war had established a wireless station near Bayport, on the Florida coast, were believed to have been explained here by the announcement that a small wireless, erected and operated by amateurs, had been found four miles from the coast town. The station located had a limited wave length and would be of little practical use over any distance.

Torpedo Skips From Battleship and Goes A-frolicking at Sea

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 18.—Warning shipping of danger, a red flag flying from a spar buoy marks the spot where the battleship New Jersey is supposed to have lost a torpedo at sea.

The buoy is located on a spot bearing on Cape Henry, Old Town, Virginia Beach and Dam Mook life saving station. The latitude is 36-47.30 north, longitude 75-22.19 west.

The torpedo was lost some days ago, but it was not announced officially until today.

Negro Held for Murder
Lester Fraser, a 19-year-old negro boy was brought over by Recorder Johnson, Thursday morning for murder. Fraser was arrested following a cutting scrape in which he is alleged to have severed the spinal cord of Roy Turner, another young negro. Their fight occurred at the corner of Marietta and Thurman streets, October 27. Turner died next day.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP! ACTS LIKE DYNAMITE ON LIVER

I guarantee "Dodson's Liver Tone" will give you the best Liver and Bowel cleansing you ever had.

Stop using calomel! It makes you sick. Don't lose a day's work. If you feel lazy, sluggish, bilious or constipated, listen to me!

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver, which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful tonight and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is the real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salfate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is causing your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that one bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children, your mother, your wife, your friends and your neighbors. It's pleasant taste—(Adv.)

An Important Question: How and by Whom Will You Have Your Building Done?

THIS is an age of specialization, and in this day and time it is the specialists in every line who are doing the big work of the world. In the building line, as in every other, it is the specialists who are erecting the best buildings at the lowest cost, and whose work, when completed, gives the utmost satisfaction.

Building by experts means a saving in the cost of construction, and there is a satisfaction in knowing that your improvements will be durable, and your contract rigidly performed. We are experts, and we know how to build economically without sacrificing quality of construction or beauty of design.

These prominent Atlantians whose buildings are shown in this advertisement, realized all this when they employed our services, and the letters reproduced below are testimonials to the high-class work we do, it matters not whether the job in hand be a mansion or a cottage, a skyscraper or a garage.

You Can Tell a Workman by His Chips

—and just as surely can you tell a specialist in the building line by the buildings he erects and the way he does it. You appreciate efficiency, and our record in the city of Atlanta as expert builders is our best recommendation. If you do not know that record we shall be glad of the opportunity to show you. If you are considering the matter of erecting a home, an apartment or a business building, we advise you to do it now. Weather conditions will not hinder you from obtaining satisfactory results, provided you leave it in skilled hands, and you will certainly never have the opportunity of securing lumber and labor at such low prices as you may do now.

We formerly built on a monthly payment plan, but these buildings were built on a cash basis, and we especially solicit your patronage on this plan.

Read these two testimonials—they are only two of the many on file in our offices, and we shall be glad to show you more, if you are interested.

Fulton County Home Builders, City:

I wish to express my entire satisfaction with the building of the house which your company has just completed, and to assure you of my appreciation of the consideration which your people have extended at all times.

My own satisfaction in the matter is increased by the assurance we have from Mr. Marry, the architect, who assures us that all of the material which you put into the house is of the very best quality and that the workmanship is equally fine, and I understand him to give his unqualified approval of the work.

I desire particularly to have you know the great courtesy with which we were at all times treated by your Superintendent of Construction, and his entire efficiency and the manner in which he handled the matter, which we greatly appreciate. At no time was there the slightest misunderstanding between him and us.

Again thanking you, and with best wishes,
(Signed) HUNT CHIPLEY.

Fulton County Home Builders,
Atlanta, Ga.

Without any suggestion whatever from any of our representatives, it gives me genuine pleasure to express my entire satisfaction with the new house which your company has just completed for me at No. 329 Forrest avenue.

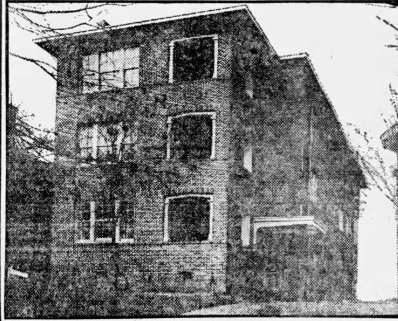

I will confess to some apprehension at the time I decided to build a residence, on account of the fact that it was my first experience of the kind, and I was afraid that by reason of my inexperience I would not be able to get just exactly what I wanted. However, my fears on this point were useless, because I have not only secured everything called for by the contract, but have found your company to, at all times, place a broad and liberal interpretation on same, and endeavor most consistently to give me just what I wanted.

Taken altogether, the handling of this matter with your company has been one of the most satisfactory business transactions I have ever entered into.

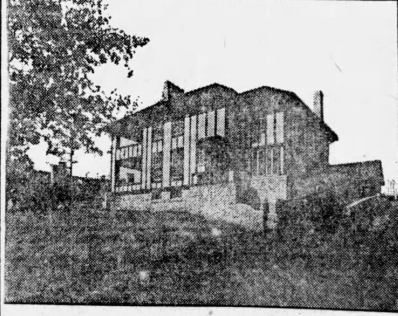

Your equipment have been patient and courteous always, and have seemed to exert themselves to the utmost to handle the matter to my satisfaction. The Messrs. Fudgett and Mr. Wills have been obliging and efficient in my business dealings with them. I want this as an occasion to say that you foremost directly in charge of the work, has been most courteous and has taken as much interest in the contract as I have myself.

With kind regards,
Yours very truly

"MY HEALTH IS PEREECT"

So Says a North Carolina
Lady In Telling What She Owes to Cardui, The Woman's Tonic

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Ada Hull, of this place, says: "About six years ago I got in very bad health. I suffered terrible pains in my abdomen and back. I dreaded to see the sun rise and I dreaded to see it set, for I suffered such agony. No one except myself will ever know how badly I suffered. The doctor said I was suffering as a result of the menopause.

As nothing gave me any relief, I asked the doctor if I hadn't better try Cardui.

He said, 'It might help you,' and told my husband to get me a bottle. At this time I was so weak I could not lift my head, and my voice was so weak, people had to lean towards the bed to hear what I said. I looked so bad and had such a dark color that I looked like a dead woman, and my relatives thought I would never get better.

I took one bottle of Cardui and it relieved the pain and suffering so much that my husband got another bottle and that improved me still more. I began to strengthen and gradually got well. I have now had better health for six years, than I ever had in all my life. I have taken no medicine since, and my health is perfect.

Cardui is the finest medicine a woman could use."

CAN GEORGIA TURN THE TRICK?—By Brewerton

BY GRANTLAND DICE

BEIJUM'S THANKSGIVING.
Let us give thanks that where today
The German dream has spread
They've left us ground enough at least
To hold our valiant dead.

And thanks, as we still dream above
Our stalwart sons and brave,
That they have left us spaces enough
To dig each one a grave.

Football is a game replete with vitality. But to use such adjectives as "grim," "savagery," "relentless," etc., in connection with its warfare makes one feel foolish after considering the use of these same words in the war that costs 10,000 men a day. But, needing the adjectives in our business, we use them and feel foolish.

THE RED AND THE BLUE.
Records are generally shaved, and shaved closely, when altered. If some sprinter should run 100 yards in five seconds it would come as a distinct shock.

Our published, paid-in record attendance at a sporting carnival in this country is 18,281, assembled at the Polo Grounds in 1911.

On Saturday this attendance record will slip from 18,000 to 70,000, which is a pretty fair boast. The red and the blue have played before a few people in other contests, taken here and there, to all the people who could wedge their way in. But they are slated to play before what you might call a regular crowd on Saturday.

So this time there can be no fault to find with the vivacious and delicious reporter, who starts his story: "All attendance records were smashed today."

With 70,000 on hand, "smashed" is correct.

HINKY VS. HAUGHTON.
This Houghton-Kinky meeting should be quite an affair, apart from the size of the crowd.

Kinky was an all-American end from 1891 through 1894. So it was just twenty years ago that the blue star left his harness behind and passed upon his way.

A number of things have happened in football and elsewhere through these twenty years, but Hinky has put a lot into the Yale play that his old team used—especially in the matter of aggressive tackling and blocking and hard running.

TO EVEN UP.
And Hinky has a lot of getting back coming his way, to scramble the expression a trifle.

Before Houghton arrived, Harvard flesh was buldog meat. It made a succulent dish. Yale banqueted every year. Harvard, in fact, hadn't scored for about six seasons, while the blue had run up in that time over 70 points.

But modes and manners and customs change. And Houghton has proved to be a big change, as it was that Yale sent for Hinky to roll back, if possible, the Crimson tide.

REGULAR JOB.
If Hinky does this season he will be a wonder. Houghton has another great machine ready, and one year is hardly a fair test for any system. It took Houghton some time to build up his machine and it will take Hinky some time to get it.

But this has been a year, as we have remarked 19 or 200 times before, notable for its delicious shifts and amazing upsets. And Hinky and his people are going to make one terrific effort to overthrow the Houghton monarchy this week.

FOR 1915.
When it is remembered that Yale has a team made up largely of sophomores, the work furnished by his people after they once got into leading and then right focused should be a herald of even better days for the year beyond.

After a slow start against M. A. C. and Syracuse, where the Wolfers were a little shaky, Houghton's team has shown that they are a team that by another season, with all this experience under their belts, the westerners should be full of argumentative possibilities for several seasons to come.

Experience is a big part of any football machine, just as it is a big part of any other sport or stroll in life, and Yost's team has acquired enough of it to possess fine possibilities throughout the first schedule arranged.

We Webb Murphy was never completely out of baseball in Chicago. And it so turns out that C. Webb was only intermingled in Cub baseball to the extent of some $400,000 worth, after he had supposedly been evicted for fair.

W. & C. is getting no great amount of desired advertising from a certain star line man who was put out for slugging, tried to beat up an official, and then threatened to wallop a football writer who accused him of rough play. Some other round W. & C. should know enough to crowd an entry of his out of the spotlight, even if it is necessary to hold him in the game.

Tournament for Tigers Defeat Lady Golfers All-Star Team

Beginning Monday of next week the Hilds Hill Golf club will hold an invitational golf tournament for all lady golfers of Atlanta. Two days, Monday and Tuesday, will be turned over to the playing field. The qualifying round will be at nine holes, while the final round will be at eighteen holes. Change Likely in Tenn. Coaches Barrow's League Will Be Retained

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Edward Barrow, president of the National League, has announced that he expects to see some changes in the league's coaching staff. Barrow, who has been president of the league for several years, has been successful in his efforts to improve the league's standing. Merkle Married Now

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 19.—Fred C. Merkle, first baseman of the New York National League baseball team, was married Tuesday night to Miss Ethel Brownson, of Tecumseh, Mich. Announcement of the wedding was made Wednesday.

Little Rock Is Getting Ready For Next Year

Manager Bob Allen, of Travelers, Secures Accommodations for Park—Also Announces His Plans for Signing Up Players

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 19.—At the next meeting of the Little Rock city council, an ordinance will be passed approving a lease of West End park, which is the city property, to R. G. Allen for a period of years, in consideration of which, he will erect a modern grand stadium in the park, and Little Rock will stand in the park, and Little Rock will stand in the park, and Little Rock will stand in the park.

President-Manager Allen has already begun to mold his team for 1915, and cut the fans may see a number of old faces, yet they will see a different team. Manager Allen has sent letters to the other Southern League managers, asking them to consider his trading partners. He has sent letters to the other Southern League managers, asking them to consider his trading partners. He has sent letters to the other Southern League managers, asking them to consider his trading partners.

It is not the policy of the new Little Rock magnate to rush into an alliance with a big league team, or to grab at a franchise. He would rather content himself with the boy from the land, and which will cost him little, and which can be developed into stars.

In coming into the Southern association, says Manager Allen, "find conditions such that I must stand back and watch the parade go by for a short time before I take any action. If there is a settlement between organized baseball and the Federal league, there will be a surplus of players to be turned over to the minor leagues. Because of the Federal league, most of these players are signed for one, two and three years, and at good salaries. They have been in the big show just because the managers were afraid they would jump if they were released to the lower class leagues."

"When these players are passed down the salaries they must accept them at the salary they are getting, or the minor league organization must pay that portion of the salary which is in excess of what the minor league can pay. For it would be impossible to pay them more than the minor league can pay. For it would be impossible to pay them more than the minor league can pay. For it would be impossible to pay them more than the minor league can pay."

The salary limit of the Southern has been reduced to $2,500, which is $500 less than it was last year, and in looking over the salaries of the players, I find some of them drew figures which would soon put me over the salary limit. I can only pick them up and I have my eyes on a few. Their salaries will not approach the salaries demanded by the men handed down from the big league, and they do not always earn their salaries."

If I want near big leaguers, there will be plenty to select from in a few months, for they will be a drug on the market. If I want near big leaguers, there will be plenty to select from in a few months, for they will be a drug on the market. If I want near big leaguers, there will be plenty to select from in a few months, for they will be a drug on the market.

Bresnahan Will Manage Cubs

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Development affecting the Chicago National League club—and through it the baseball world—the National agreement—came fast Wednesday. First was the revelation that Charles E. Murphy, despite having been "outed" last winter, still has a large influence among those directing the club's affairs; then came Charles F. Tait's announcement that he had ended successfully and third that Roger Bresnahan would be manager of the Cubs in 1915.

Murphy's influence became apparent in the success of the fight to keep the Cubs on their west side playing grounds, of which he is half owner. On returning from Cincinnati Murphy declared there was no chance of Wegman's buying into the club, and which was confirmed soon after by Tait's formal announcement. Finally Murphy stated positively that Bresnahan would succeed Hank O'Day as Cub manager.

Partial confirmation of this came later when President Thomas was requested by Tait to bring Bresnahan to Chicago to meet with the club and the directors. Charles Wegman's developments brought from Charles Wegman a declaration that war would continue with the Federals in a better position than ever to wage it.

Auburn Expects Hard Game Here With Georgia

Plainsmen Working to Get in Top Shape for Game Saturday—Team Expects to Win, but Knows That Georgia Is Coming to Put Up Desperate Battle

ATLANTA, Ala., Nov. 19.—With the Vanderbilt game out of the way, Auburn is this week busying herself with the task of disposing of Georgia when the two teams meet Saturday on Grant field. The Plainsmen came through the Vanderbilt game without further injuries than had already been sustained, and should enter the game with Georgia in the best of health.

But there is no disposition here to magnify the game. Coach Donahue and the team appreciate the fact that Georgia will meet them in a game with a never-say-die spirit. And when these two teams meet, it is always a battle to the death. Surprises have rather been the order of things when the two have met in the past, and while the odds favor Auburn this year, the team is working diligently to get in top shape for the game.

In 1911, everything looked rosy and bright for Georgia, but Auburn had men in the hospital for various reasons, and prospects were exceedingly gloom on the campus. However, when the two met in Savannah, a drawn battle was fought, and Auburn came out with a score of 14 to 6.

That was the game in which the famous note written by Coach Donahue, himself in bed, on one of an envelope was read to the team. Those who saw the game agree that they have yet to witness a more desperate and hard-fought contest.

The following players were injured in the game at Athens tipped to win by Auburn, but they were not in the game at Athens. The team had just had a victory over the Commodores had swamped Georgia. But it was Georgia, which sprung the surprise this time. The Athens boys won by a score of 16 to 6.

This year, the Georgians are the under dogs, and Auburn is the favorite. That means to take the game Saturday lightly. Auburn should win, but there was none here so foolish as to prophesy a victory by any large margin.

And now trotting races are getting suspicious. Does Sam Langford now get that title?

Gunboat Smith was white heavyweight champion. Does Sam Langford now get that title?

HELP!
Gunboat Smith was white heavyweight champion. Does Sam Langford now get that title?

Mistake not, friend fan, the seeming lull in football enthusiasm, which appears to have settled over our peaceful community since the little argument between Georgia and Tech at Grant field Saturday afternoon. All is not over. Far from it. The fires are just kindling, and within a period of some two days a great battle will break out anew. That game Saturday between Georgia and Auburn is going to be no pink tea affair. It is one thing to outfox and outpunch a bloke in the corner of the ring, and better if you do before he realizes just how badly he is being punished. But it is another thing to crowd this same party into a corner, and set in to maul the eternal lights out of him.

Mike Donahue is coming over with a great football team, ready to slip the prod to the Georgians good and strong, but his boys won't land the bacon without a struggle. The Red and Black came through the Tech game without serious injuries, and Logan and others who were out of that contest will doubtless have recovered sufficiently to permit them to play at least a part of the Auburn game. Backed to the last ditch, the Georgians will fight to the death. They are especially anxious to score at least one touchdown, even if they can't get away with a victory. A score against Auburn would be a great thing, a signal honor, since none of the Plainsmen's former foes have been able to do one over. And remember that one well executed forward pass, or a single fumble may furnish just the support needed to spoil a clean slate for Donahue's charges.

And while doping the outcome of Saturday's game, don't forget that less than a week from that date, comes another big battle. Clemson is coming down this year to retrieve if possible some of the prestige lost locally by the overwhelming defeat of last season. Last year the Tigers had been tipped as a good bet to beat the Jackets, but they were shown up by one of the Williams has most of his offensive machinery from last year back, and a good part of his defense. In James and Webb he has two corking good backfield men, who will give us eleven in Dixie trouble. And remember that Tech won by a large score last year, so the Williams has a reputation of being a great defensive coach. The Jackets are likely to find advancing the ball a tough proposition than they did last year.

President Ben Johnson of the American league has at last discovered a matter of business to divert his mind from shying bricks at the Feds. His Michigan beat the Michigan 3 to 0. Following this monstrous event, Nebraska will be better than Michigan. Follow closely, for South Dakota beat Nebraska and may, therefore, be better than Michigan with being 21 to 0 better than Michigan.

Notre Dame beat South Dakota 29 to 0. Adding 21 and 29, Notre Dame must, therefore, be better than Michigan. Notre Dame then journeyed east. Yale beat Notre Dame, 20 to 0, and the odds are, therefore, 21 to 0 better than the crusher. Harvard defeated Michigan by the measly score of 7 to 1. Science and theology are not the same, and it is therefore, 75 to 0 better than Harvard.

Speaking of a useless expenditure of money, and a waste of time, the poor folk who had his drink expensed in Ann Arbor wrecked by Michigan results because he was without the drink that he could "get" two of the Michigan players in the Cornell game. Then he called the score of the game.

Maulbetsch's Endurance Marvel of Yost's Team

DETROIT, Nov. 19.—One of the numerous reasons why Johnny Maulbetsch, who has been twice out of the game by a broken leg, is still in the game, is his endurance. He has been in the game for a long time, and he has been in the game for a long time, and he has been in the game for a long time.

Some star football players make most of their gains along the corridors of a hospital. They are great fighters, and they are great fighters, but they never are out of spirits long enough to be of any great value. Maulbetsch, however, is a different kind of a player. He is a different kind of a player. He is a different kind of a player.

He has been in the game for a long time, and he has been in the game for a long time, and he has been in the game for a long time. He has been in the game for a long time, and he has been in the game for a long time, and he has been in the game for a long time.

It was a fine play, but it didn't win. Maulbetsch not only survived the game, but he was in the game for a long time, and he was in the game for a long time, and he was in the game for a long time.

It seems impossible to believe that a man who has been in the game for a long time, and he has been in the game for a long time, and he has been in the game for a long time.

Yost wanted to leave him in the game, but he was in the game for a long time, and he was in the game for a long time, and he was in the game for a long time.

He had a hard time, but he was in the game for a long time, and he was in the game for a long time, and he was in the game for a long time.

He was in the game for a long time, and he was in the game for a long time, and he was in the game for a long time.

He was in the game for a long time, and he was in the game for a long time, and he was in the game for a long time.

He was in the game for a long time, and he was in the game for a long time, and he was in the game for a long time.

COTTON MARKET ADVANCED ON SCATTERED BUYING

Market in New York Closed 7 to 10 Points Higher Than the Previous Close

Very little cotton offering for sale in the market at a decline of 1 point on December, but an advance of 2 or 3 points on May and July. The market was quiet and the price declined some 5 to 7 points net higher. The absence of offerings was taken by local traders as indicating that scattering old style contracts had been liquidated and that the market had declined below carrying prices below an attractive hedging level. There was covering on the advance during the early trading and some fresh buying took place. The market was quiet.

Offerings continued very light during the middle of the day and the active months sold at 11 points net higher after midday with a decline of 1 point.

Level. Prominent spot interests are credited with having bought most of the December contracts recently liquidated.

Prices of March within a range of 2 or 3 points during the middle of the afternoon, but the undertone was steady and offerings continued light.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 10.—Cotton futures today opened quiet and steady at an advance of 3/4 to 1/2 cent from the previous day's closing, and the ring had few selling orders to fill. The shorts who wanted to buy covers bid prices up to 1/2 cent, but the market was not strong in the opening the market stood 5 to 6 points up.

The market maintained a good tone throughout the morning. Offerings were slender and to 12 points by the noon call.

NEW YORK COTTON LETTER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The principal feature of the market today was the buying of new contracts by Liverpool and spot interests buying December and selling disfloat positions. The market was a good deal more animated for spinners for the near position, and it is not unlikely that there is a local speculative short interest in December which will probably cover on any day the week.

The market had around 90 points decline since the re-opening which has evened up the market to a great ex-able to the market today than since the opening. The completion of the $135,000,000 pool is having a stimulating effect and there is a tendency to sell short owing to the difference in the rice of sets in the south and quotations here, but it is hard to form an opinion as outside business is extremely light and very little interest is shown in the market, but at present it looks as if we would have an upturn, and it will take further developments in the rice situation to show a decline below the present prices.—Anderson.

CERTIFIED PROPERTY STATEMENTS

A prominent western credit man says: "Perhaps most of us have exalted ideas of our own property, and an applicant for credit might, in good faith, make statements which must be discounted 50 per cent."

If banks and the larger business houses were to insist upon certified statements by public accountants, there is no doubt but that the annual loss from bad debts of some one hundred odd million dollars would be substantially reduced.

The services of a qualified certified public accountant cost far less than the average loss of money through poor credit.

COULD NOT SLEEP, COULD NOT EAT

Woman So Weak and Nervous Could Not Stand Her Children Near Her—Vinol Changed Everything for Her

Plant City, Fla.—"I wish I could tell everybody about Vinol. For nine years I was in bad health. I got so I could not sleep, and I could not stand it to have my children come near me. I could not even see or do any heavy housework. I was simply tired all the time. I tried so many medicines I could not recall them all, but nothing did me any good. One day a friend asked me to try Vinol and said it was the best tonic she ever saw. I did so, and soon got the first good night's sleep I had had for a long time. Now I sleep well, my appetite is good, my nervousness is all gone and I am so strong and well I do all my housework and work in my flower garden without feeling tired or nervous. Vinol has made me a well and happy woman."—Mrs. C. H. Miller, Plant City, Fla.

Vinol contains the curative, healing principles of fresh cod livers (without oil) and tonic iron.

We ask every weak, run-down, nervous person in this vicinity to try Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, on our guarantee to return their money if it fails to benefit.

HUGHES FEEDS FRIENDS WITH GEORGIA PEAS

Assistant in Farming Bureau Proves Value of His Favorite Dish

From soup to nuts it was all peas at the dinner given by Assistant Commissioner of Agriculture Dan G. Hughes, in the mahogany room of the fifth hotel Anasay at 7 o'clock Wednesday night.

The dinner was strictly in honor of the Georgia field pea, which Mr. Hughes says is the greatest Georgia product of them all, grown in large quantities, cheap to buy, easily convertible into many a dainty dish. Georgia people could eat peas three times a day and never get tired he asserted.

The menu was as follows: Puree of Georgia field peas; a blue potato; cream of Georgia field peas soup; north Georgia trout stuffed with field peas; potatoes à la hollandaise, trimmed with peas; barbecued pig with peas; candied yams baked with peas; Georgia field peas, salad; jelly; cake; peas; whipped cream.

Among the guests were Commissioner of Agriculture J. D. Price, State Veterinarian Dr. Peter F. Bahnen, Assistant State Entomologist W. W. Chase and Dr. R. E. Stallings, state chemist.

RED CROSS WORKERS ARE WELCOMED IN GERMANY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Hospitality that marked the reception of Red Cross units delegated to Germany and Austria-Hungary upon their arrival in Breslau, was described today in a report from Consul Seltzer to the state department.

They were officially received by Dr. Von Guinther, Ober-Präsident of Silesia; Consul General Von Pittner, and officials of the Breslau branch of the Red Cross. A luncheon in their honor was given that evening, the report stated, and so great was the crowd that gathered outside the hotel that police had to make way for the automobiles which carried the units for Austria to the railway station. The tables were decorated with American flags and the singing of patriotic American songs was a feature. "The delegates were unanimous in their expression that this was the best reception they had received anywhere," Consul Seltzer reported.

Cranberries and Celery On Way to Soldiers for Thanksgiving Dinner

(By Associated Press.)
GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 19.—Seven quarts of cranberries and 480 bunches of celery composed the "cargo" of the army transport San Marcos when she sailed for Vera Cruz today to assist in the return of the fifth brigade to Galveston. The cranberries and celery will be used as accessories to the Thanksgiving dinner on the troops which will probably be eaten at sea a few miles from this port on next Thursday.

ALL LONDON PAYS RESPECT TO LATE LORD ROBERTS

Gun Carriage Bears Body to Resting Place Beside Other Famous Britons

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Nov. 19.—The body of Field Marshal Lord Roberts, borne on a gun carriage, moved slowly through the streets of London today to its last resting place in St. Paul's cathedral. The streets were lined with troops, while hundreds of thousands of civilians stood with bowed heads in a cold rain as the funeral cortege went by.

The cortege reached St. Paul's at noon where funeral services were held before a reverent throng, including King George. The body will be entered along side the remains of Wellington, Nelson, Voltaire and other famous Britons.

Lord Roberts died from natural causes last week at the headquarters of the British army in France. He was 82 years of age. The body was returned to England yesterday and last night it lay in his residence at Ascot, where brief services attended by Lady Roberts and her daughters were held. This morning the coffin was brought to London for public funeral.

NOTE: In honor given that I will not be responsible for any debts or bills made by Mrs. A. M. Butler from this date on. Signed Mrs. A. M. Butler, Nov. 19, 1914.

GAME SEASON WILL OPEN IN GEORGIA FRIDAY

Thousands of Hunters Over State Are Busy Cleaning Up Their Guns

Thousands of Georgia hunters were busy Thursday cleaning up their guns and getting ready for the opening of the game season Friday. Hardware stores report the sales of many shot guns and much ammunition and almost every express car is handling one or more bird dogs.

Reports received by State Game Commissioner Davis are that there is an abundance of quail, deer and wild turkeys this year—more than have been seen in the state within twenty-five years, thanks to the protection afforded by the game laws.

Mr. Davis and a party of friends have arranged to hunt Friday in Cherokee county, where an unusual supply of birds has been reported.

More Cold Weather Due Friday, Says Official Forecast

More cold weather is on the way to Atlanta, according to the weather bureau's forecast Thursday. "Fair to night and Friday," was the way it read, "colder Friday."

The prediction was that the mercury would fall below the freezing point, but that conditions would not be quite so severe as they were the early part of the week.

MAN FINED ON CHARGE OF SELLING DISEASED COWS

W. I. Strickland, a stock dealer, was fined $75 in the city criminal court Thursday, when he was found guilty on a charge of selling diseased cows. The specific charge against Strickland was that he sold three tubercular cows to a dairyman to whom he represented that the cattle were sound.

Mr. H. G. Carnes, the veterinary, was one of the principal witnesses and testified that in February he was called by W. E. Selman to inspect his milk cows and found that three of the herd were infected with tubercular germs. Mr. Selman, according to the testimony, sold them to Strickland for a nominal sum, telling him the cows had been condemned and could not be used for dairy purposes. Despite this, it is alleged, Strickland sold them to W. E. Selman, alleging that they were sound.

The case attracted considerable attention as it is the first conviction in a case of this sort in the local courts in some time, and it is said to mark the beginning of a campaign against dealers in condemned cattle.
